6. RIGHTS OF PERSONAL DATA SUBJECTS

a) Right to transparent communication and access to information

The INSTITUTION will inform the Data Subject, in accordance with the law, in a clear and transparent manner, about the processing of their Personal Data as controller, providing them, upon request, with complete information about the processing.

b) Right of correction and deletion

The INSTITUTION ensures that the Data Subject can rectify their Personal Data, particularly when it is incorrect, inaccurate, or out of date, or complete the data if it is incomplete.

In the same way, all the Processed data, in the capacity of the controller, will be deleted from the servers when requested by the Data Subject or when they are no longer necessary or relevant for the provision of the contracted services. Unless there is any other reason for maintaining it, such as any legal obligation to retain data or the need to preserve it in order to protect the INSTITUTION's rights.

c) Revocation of consent

The INSTITUTION will obtain the Data Subject's consent to collect and process their Personal Data for various purposes, except in cases where consent is not required. The INSTITUTION guarantees the Data Subject the right to withdraw consent at any time by means of communication.

d) Communication channels for the exercise of rights

Data Subjects, whether they are Customers, Users, suppliers, or third parties, may exercise their rights through the Privacy Policy available at the following link <https://premierpet.com.br/privacidade/>.

The INSTITUTION reserves the right not to respond to requests for the exercise of rights if it determines that it is not possible to securely identify the Data Subject, informing the person who is exercising his rights in this situation.

The INSTITUTION seeks to respond to all requests, assessing whether their satisfaction complies with the applicable legal and regulatory requirements. The INSTITUTION reserves the right not to comply with the request whenever it determines that there is a legal basis preventing the Data Subject from exercising the invoked right.

7. ACTIVITY LOG - COOKIES

Cookies are small text files with little information that are downloaded to your browsing device (such as a computer or smartphone) when you visit a page. Cookies can be recognized by the page and/or solution that downloaded them, helping to determine whether the browsing device has visited before. They may also contain user preferences or other information.

It is possible to divide the cookies used by the Platform into (i) First-party cookies, which are set by the owner of the page and/or solution, and (ii) Third-party cookies, set by a third-party service other than the INSTITUTION. Third-party cookies allow third-party resources or functionalities to be used on the page and/or solution to enrich it in terms of functionalities, such as allowing the analysis of technical telemetry, advertisements and videos.

The use of first-party cookies is necessary for the Platform to function, while the second category is optional. You can configure your browser to notify you when cookies are received and to prevent cookies from being installed. Please consult your browser's instructions to expand on this information. To use the Platform, the User is not required to allow the installation of cookies. However, disabling them may affect navigation and user experience.

8. SECURITY MEASURES

The INSTITUTION uses various types of security measures to guarantee the integrity of Personal Data, in accordance with the information security standards practiced by the sector when Processing Personal Data.

Personal Data may also be stored using cloud computing technology and other technologies that may emerge in the future with the objective of improving and enhancing our services and security.

The INSTITUTION strives to protect the privacy of Personal Data, but unfortunately, it is not possible to guarantee total security. Unauthorized entry and use by third parties of User information, hardware or software failures not under the INSTITUTION's control, and other external factors may compromise the security of Personal Data. If the User identifies or becomes aware of any factor that compromises the security of their data in their relationship with the INSTITUTION, please contact us using the contact details indicated below.

9. CHANGES TO THIS PRIVACY POLICY

The INSTITUTION may change this Privacy Policy at any time. Whenever any relevant condition of this Privacy Policy is changed, such changes shall be valid, effective, and binding after the new version is posted on the Platform.
